

Mr Jonathan (Jon) Sharp

Solicitor and Qualified Mediator

General Information

Jonathan uses his excellent communication skills to resolve difficult and embedded disputes.

He has a relaxed approach, listening to parties' needs and concerns and then guiding them towards a resolution of their differences.

Jonathan draws upon over 30 years of experience, and on an impressive list of reported cases as a commercial litigation solicitor. His knowledge and understanding of the technical procedures (and the costs) that can trap parties in litigation help him to understand very quickly the best route forward for the parties and, where appropriate, to encourage the parties to test their current position.

Jonathan has a calm and relaxed style but he is not afraid of and being firm with the parties where it is necessary to engender a settlement.

Jonathan is a consultant in the niche construction and litigation solicitors practice, Shemmings Hathaway LLP. He is a fully accredited commercial mediator.

Jon can assist with mediating disputes in the following areas -
